THIS AND THAT.

Plover eggs are esteemed a great delicacy in England and Germany.

The greatest ranching country of the Canadian northwest is Alberta.

The shortest book in the Bible is Obadiah, which has only one chapter of 21 verses.

In the last decade the increase in wealth was one-seventh greater than the increase of population.

Moses lived exactly midway between the building of the pyramids, 5,000 B. C., and our own day.

The eating of snakes, lizards, scorpions, centipedes, tarantulas and other reptiles is now prohibited by statute in Kansas.

The rubber-plant was first discovered by a French geographer named La Condamine, who was sent by the French government to Brazil in 1735.

The 927 New Jersey corporations, having $238,000,000 capital, recently dissolved for non-payment of taxes represent but one in twenty-four of the companies incorporated in that state.

The county of Champaign, Ohio, has just paid over $5,000 to the heirs of "Click" Mitchell, a negro, who was lynched there six years ago. These damages have been collected under a law of Ohio making the county where lynchings occur so liable, and the long delay in payment is due to litigation to test the validity of the state law.

Five hundred Iowa farmers have tried the experiment of going into business for themselves, dealing in many staple articles used upon the farm, and buying all kinds of farm produce. In 1901 they transacted business to the amount of $620,000, at an outlay of about $4,000, inclusive of salaries, taxes and insurance. In 1902 the volume of business was approximately $630,000. Since these farmers organized their company 13 years ago the business transacted has amounted to over $4,000,000, and the expense of carrying it on has averaged $3,000 a year.

HOW IT BEGAN.

Man Who Proved His Statement About "Intolerable Fools."

"Here's a remarkable statement," said Mr. Bibbin, looking up from his newspaper.

"What is it, dear?" his wife asked. "It says there has not been a decade in the last five centuries in which war has not been waged somewhere in the world."

"Isn't that dreadful? Why can't people be reasonable and live in peace?"

"Because people are mostly intolerant fools," Mr. Bibbin answered. "I declare it makes a man ashamed of his kind." He crumpled up the paper, says London Tit-Bits, and dashed it to the floor.

"There, there, Elias!" said his wife, "don't get excited over it."

"Who's getting excited? I s'pose I've got a right to express an opinion in my own house?"

"It's no more your house than mine. I'd have you know," said Mrs. Bibbin. "I guess I worked and scrimped as hard as you did to get it."

"See here, madam!"

"Don't you 'madam' me, Elias Bibbin. I won't stand it."

"Oh, you won't, won't you? Well, if you were a man I'd punch your impertinent jaw!"

"No, you wouldn't, you big bully. You wouldn't dare say 'boo' to a man."

"I wouldn't, eh?" He strode toward her, shaking his fist. "For two pins I'd—"

"You lay a hand on me," said Mrs. Bibbin, snatching up the rose vase, "and I'll—"

Just then the door bell rang.

"Excuses."

The following are copies of a couple of "excuses" recently received by a Philadelphia school-teacher: "Dear Madam—Kindly excuse Tommy for being absent. He fell down the seller stairs just before school time. At first we thought his internal inside was injured, but the doctor said it was the bruizing of the eppeydemys of the outside was much. However, he narrowly escaped fatal death." "Dear Teacher: Please excuse James for being absent. We have a pet goat and he cut up his Jameses pants. His father couldn't get him any until yesterday. Mrs. P. M.—We have tied up the goat."

How to Get Along Faster.

Some people would get along much faster if they didn't waste so much time telling other people what they would do if they had a chance.—Chicago Daily News.
